ANNUAL REPORT

HELPING PEOPLE – CHANGING LIVES

Introduction:

In Pakistan, 39.6% (source; The World Bank) of people are living below the poverty line, indicating a profound need for immediate action to help bring an end to this situation. We believe that every human being has the right to live a life of self-respect, dignity and economic security. While Madinatul Ilm charitable trust (MICT) is committed to a variety of avenues for helping those in need, our ultimate objective is to tackle the fallout from poverty. Millions of people were affected by floods and required life-saving assistance. Climate change is increasing the frequency and scale of disasters such as those related to floods and heavy rains. In view of this, MICT stepped up relief operations, working across Pakistan through food support, health, clothes, livelihood and emergency relief.

The MICT's core objectives are:

- Empowering those in need while simultaneously sensitizing our supporters to the challenges faced by the less fortunate members of our society.
- While we pursue multiple tracks to help our targeted populations, our ultimate objective is to enable our beneficiaries to pursue the best possible education for themselves and their dependents.
- We are dedicated to help communities in crisis hit situations, enabling them to return to lives of normalcy.
- While education remains our prime objective, overcoming other obstacles to human well-being such as unemployment and water-shortage in far flung areas, are also of central interest to our work.
